Declarations: source methodology and production comparison

Stevenson v. Stevenson, No. 56-CV-20-2928
Declarations of Craig Stevenson, Docs. 116, 119 and 122
Filed September 23, 2021

Selected passages transcribed from the identified court record. Formatting and line breaks are simplified. Each labeled block stands separately; material between blocks may be omitted. Original page numbers refer to the source, not this excerpt PDF.

Craig Stevenson's sworn statements about source methodology and production comparisons. These are the declarant's assertions, rather than court findings or the underlying carrier records.

Detailed communication tables, table commentary and disclosure-review tables on original pages 2-9 are omitted. The handwritten signatures are not reproduced. Selected paragraph numbers and original page locators identify each separate declaration.

Doc. 116, original page 1, paragraph 2

I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' motion to compel against Defendant Lisa Stevenson-Allen ("Lisa").

Doc. 116, original page 1, paragraph 3

I have compiled the following summaries from documents produced in this case and as produced by AT&T and Verizon in response to subpoenas served on them by my attorneys.

Doc. 116, original page 1, paragraph 4

Between April 1, 2019 and November 19, 2020, a highly relevant period in this case, Sean exchanged 158 texts with my daughter Makayla Stevenson, 239 texts with Lisa, and 398 texts with Renee. However, Sean and Renee have only produced the 158 texts from Makayla. Lisa has produced no documents of her own to supplement this production.

Doc. 116, original page 9, paragraph 13

The documents used to prepare the summary tables in this declaration have been made available to the parties in this case and can be filed with the Court upon request under Minn. R. Evid. 1006.

Doc. 116, original page 9, declaration under penalty of perjury

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT EVERYTHING I HAVE STATED IN THIS DOCUMENT IS TRUE AND CORRECT.
