Re: Craig and Marie Stevenson v. Sean Stevenson, Renee Stevenson, and Lisa Stevenson-Allen
Court File No: 56-cv-20-2928

Dear Judge Miller,

Plaintiffs filed a request for leave to reconsider their motions to compel on January 7, 2022. Upon review of Plaintiffs' critique of this Court's Order, its necessary to clarify one aspect of their argument that seems to be at the root of their request. Plaintiffs allege Defendants "have generally refused to produce documents and information about pre-litigation communications" based on the common-interest doctrine.

This is a straw man - Defendants have not, and are not, claiming the common-interest doctrine shield's any pre-litigation communications and have not refused to produce any communication pursuant to that doctrine.

Respectfully,
TENTINGER LAW FIRM, P.A.
